Horkin' In the Rain

Sung to the tune of Singing In the Rain,
Written by Arthur Freed and Nacio Herb Brown, made popular by Gene Kelly in the movie of the same name.

I'm horkin' in the rain
Just horkin' in the rain
What a strange, icky feelin'
I'm hungry again
I'm diggin' for rats
Somewhere on the floor
I know there's one left
And I'm ready for more

Let the cooper hawk chase
I'm still safe in my place
Come on with the food
My guts in the mood.
I sit in the horks
I'm holding my forks
Just horkin',
Horkin' in the rain

Lyric parody by DotRot

Owl Box San Marcos

Sung to the tune of Hotel California, written by Don Felder, Don Henley and Glenn Frey and recorded by the Eagles.

In a San Marcos backyard, cool wind in the air
Warm smell of fresh wood rising up through the air.
Up ahead in the distance there came a shimmering light
The sight of beauty, A perfect owl pair.
On way to new owl home.

There she stood in the doorway.
We heard the name Molly
And I was thinking to myself this will be so much fun!
Then she screeched out loud and she showed us her McGee
There were voices down below I thought I heard them say

"Welcome to the Owl Box San Marcos.
Such a lovely place
Such a lovely place (background)
Such a lovely face
Plenty of room at the Owl Box San Marcos
Any time of year

Her mind definitely settled. She's got egg-laying mood.
She's got a lot of pretty, pretty fans. That she calls MODS.
How they sing in the chatroom. Sweet owl songs.
Some sing to remember. Some sing to celebrate.

Carlos stops in to say, "Please everyone be nice."
He said, "This is such fun, and we are all a part of this!
And the chatz begin, such joy and harmony
Wake you up in the middle of the night
Just to hear them sing

Welcome to the Owl Box San Marcos
Such a lovely Place
Such a lovely Place (background)
Such a lovely face
They're livin' it up at the Owl Box San Marcos
What a nice surprise
What a nice surprise (background)
Bring your lovely treatz

Cameras on the wallz; Pink miceys in fur.
And a MOD says, "We are all just prisoners here.
Of our own device"

And in the master's control room,
They gathered for the hatchings
We all stare with our impatient eyes.
But I lost the connection
Last thing I remember
I was running for the computer
I had to find the passage back to the place I was before
Relax said the Carlos-man
We are programed to recieve
You can check out any time you like
But you can never leave...

Side by Side

Sung to the tune of Side by Side, written by Harry MacGregor Woods (1925)
made popular by numerous recording artists over the years.

Oh we ain't got a barrel of owl horks
Maybe we're raspy when we talk
but we'll travel along singin our song

Side By Side

Through all kinds of weather
Maybe the rain will fall
but as long as we fly together
it really doesnt matter at all

You prefer rat and I bunny
we dont hunt when it's sunny
But we'll travel along singin our song

Side by Side

But we'll fly along singin' our song

Side by Side

Good Golly, Miss Molly

Sung to the tune of Good Golly, Miss Molly, written by John Marascalco,
and first recorded by Little Richard in 1958.

Good golly miss Molly, your kids do hork,
Good golly miss Molly, your kids do hork,
When they're screechin' and a callin',
can be heard in New York.

From the first dark of evenin' to the breakin' of first light,
You can hear Miss Molly's babies holler all through the night,
Good golly miss Molly, your kids do hork,
When they're screechin' and a callin',
can be heard in New York.

Molly, McGee told 'em "If you don't holler for your food",
We ain't bringin' nuttin', now screeching just ain't rude.
Good golly miss Molly, your kids do hork,
When they're screechin' and a callin',
can be heard in New York.

Goin' to the hunting fields, gonna find these kids a mouse,
If they bite my legs again, I'll remove it from the house.
Good golly miss Molly, your kids do hork,
When they're screechin' and a callin',
can be heard in New York.

Molly Had Some Little Owlets

Sung to the tune of Mary Had a Little Lamb,
A popular English-language children's nursery song.

Molly had some little owlets, little owlets, little owlets
Molly had some little owlets,
Their feathers white as snow.

And ev'ry where that Molly went, Molly went, Molly went.
Ev'rywhere that Molly went
The MODs were sure to know.

We followed them from day to day, day to day, day to day.
We followed them from day to day,
Which was such wonderful fun.

Lenz made the children laugh and play, laugh and play,
laugh and play.
Lenz made the children laugh and play,
To see the owlets grow.

Carlos had that camera on, camera on, camera on Carlos had that camera on 24 hours a day.

He shared his time and much talent, much talent, much talent.
He shared his time and much talent
And gave us all a great time!.

Whatcha gonna' do when the gopher's gone, honey?

Whatcha gonna' do when the gopher's gone, babe?

Whatcha gonna' do when the gopher's gone?

We've got some fat rat to munch on, honey, baby, mine!

Wake up, Ash! You've slept too late, honey!

Wake up, Ash! You've slept too late, babe!

Wake up, Ash! You've slept too late!

Nighttime's comin' and the menu's great, honey, baby, mine!

Standin' in the door with a tail in my beak, honey!

Standin' in the door with a tail in my beak, babe!

Standin' in the door with a tail in my beak,

Come on Ashley take a peek, honey, baby, mine!

I hope Daddy brings a rat for us, honey!

I hope Daddy brings a rat for us.

C'mon Carrie, make a fuss, honey, baby, mine!

All these people watchin' the box, honey!

All these people watchin' the box, babe!

All these people watchin' the box!

An owlitude for you; Calm Carrie he be

So the poor little Ashley tempered on!

Whistle While You Hork

Sung to the tune of Whistle While You Work, written by Frank Churchill and lyrics written by Larry Morey for the 1937 animated Disney movie Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs.

Just whistle while you hork.
Pick up that mouse and clean the house and holler long and loud.
Just screech until you're hoarse.
Just do your best, don't take a rest. You do your mother proud.

When there's too much to eat
Stand up on both your feet, do a little dance,
Around the shag in your saggy, fluffy pants.
And whistle while you hork.
Come on get wise, open up your eyes
And whistle while you hork.

Lyric parody by DotRot

Molly's Lullaby

Sung to the tune of Hush, Little Baby, a traditional lullaby. It is thought to be American, but the author and date of origin are unknown.

Hush little owlet, don't make a a peep.
Daddy will bring food, now go to sleep.

If you can't sleep, rest in the horks.
I'll feed you soon, we don't need forks.

When Daddy comes with a great big bunny
I'll tickle your beak. It'll sure feel funny.

Or maybe he'll bring you a great big rat.
Won't that be tasty? Just think of that!

It might be a gopher that Daddy brings.
You'll learn to eat many different things.

Eat all you can so you can grow.
Before you know it, feathers will show.

You'll grow up soon, and learn to fledge.
You'll have great fun playing on the ledge.

Daddy will teach you to find your food.
You'll each learn to hunt the food that's good.

One day you'll fly and not come home.
You'll find a mate and far you'll roam.

As you make your home and raise owlets new.
Remember we love you. We're proud of you.

They'll be watchin' everywhere
There'll be stompin', screechin' and owls playin'
They're watchin' in the streets

Oh, it doesn't matter what you wear
Just as long as you are there
So come on, every guy grab a girl
Everywhere around the world
There'll be watchin'
They're watchin' in the street

Sung to the tune of Heigh-Ho, Heigh-Ho, It's Off to Work We Go, written by Frank Churchill and lyrics written by Larry Morey for the 1937 animated Disney movie Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs.

We screech and squawk in our box the whole day through
To hork hork hork is what we really like to do.
It ain't no trick to get more mice quick
If you hork with a squawk and pride.

In a box! In a box! In a box! In a box!
Where a million horks reside!

We screech and squawk from early morn till night.
We eat up every rodentia in sight.
We hork up bones by the score -
A thousand furballs, sometimes more.
But we don't know what we hork 'em for
We eat and hork some more.

Hork-ho, Hork-ho
Hork-ho, Hork-ho
Hork-ho

[Chorus]

Proud Molly

Sung to the tune of Proud Mary, written by John Fogerty and first recorded by rock band Creedence Clearwater Revival

Left a good hork in the gag shag,
Downin' big ol' rats every night and day,
And I never lost one minute of eatin',
Worryin' 'bout that hawk who flew away again.

CHORUS:

Big hork keep on poppin',
Proud Molly keep 'em hoppin',
Horkin', horkin', horkin' in the gag shag.

Ripped a lot of mice in San Marcos,
Gulped a lot of rats McGee brought me too,
But I always knew the good friends of the owl box,
Tauntz the funny bunny and his little kidz too.

CHORUS

If you come down to San Marcos,
There you'll surely find a couple who share.
You see how much they gave us with no thought of money,
People in the owl box are ready to care.

CHORUS

Sung to the tune of The Ballad of Jed Clampett, written by Paul Henning and made popular as the theme song to the television show The Beverly Hillbillies (sung by Jerry Scoggins, accompanied by Lester Flatt and Earl Scruggs).

Come and listen to a story 'bout an owl named McGee.
He lives by himself in a lonely palm tree.
He sleeps all day, he's a nocturnal owl.
And then at night, McGee's on the prowl.
(Mousies that is . . . or rat . . . or a vole.)

Now McGee sets out each night to find some prey.
His eyes shine bright and he hears each word they say.
They cannot hide from his mighty ears.
He dives and grabs and Molly cheers!
(That's my man! . . . All mine! . . . He's a star!)

Sunrise, Sunset, in the Owl Box

Sung to the tune of Sunrise, Sunset, written by Jerry Bock and Sheldon Harnick, for the 1964 musical Fiddler on the Roof.

Are these the little eggs we cherished,
Are these the tiny owls at play?
I don't remember growing older,
When did they?
When did she get to be a beauty,
When did he grow to be so tall?
Wasn't it yesterday when they were small?

Chorus:

Sunrise, sunset,
Sunrise, sunset,
Swiftly flow the days.
Seedlings turn overnight to sunflow'rs
Blossoming even as we gaze.

Sunrise, sunset,
Sunrise, sunset,
Swiftly fly the years,
One season following another,
Laden with happiness and tears.

What words of wisdom can we give them,
Can Carlos help to ease their way?
Now they must learn from one another,
Day by day

Chorus:

When Owlsh Eyes Are Smiling

Sung to the tune of When Irish Eyes Are Smiling, written by Chauncey Olcott, George Graff, Jr. and Ernest Ball. Made popular by Bing Crosby and many other recording artists.

Chorus:

When owlsh eyes are smiling
Sure it seems that all is fine.
I can see the owlets laughing,
As on rodentia they dine.
When owlsh hearts are happy,
All the world joins in and smiles
For when owlsh eyes are smiling,
The joy spreads across the miles.

There's one owl out today,
Just how long will she stay?
It's too soon for her to be gone for so long.
With just one here at home,
Looking so all alone,
Many a chat teardrop might fall.
When she came down with a plop
And went thud on the top,
You could hear happy sighs all around.
Now she'll stay here a while
And the chatters will smile.
And so happy, so happy we'll be!

Chorus:

Owl Be Seeing You

Sung to the tune of I'll Be Seeing You, written by Sammy Fain and Irving Kahal, made popular by Bing Crosby and other recording artists.

Owl be seeing you in all the owld familiar places
That this heart of mine embraces owl day through:
On the roof of gray, the ledge across the way,
Inside the barn owl box,
the Boltz and Stainz, the fluff windZocs.

Owl be seeing you in every pun and parody,
In Phoons, and Dot, and Clow-ney,
So many lovely memories,
Owl see you in the morning sun,
And when the night is new,
Owl be looking at the moon,
But Owl be seeing you!

Owld Lang Syne

Sung to the tune of Auld Lang Syne, a poem by Robert Burns set to a traditional folk song, usually sung on New Year's Eve or at other poignant partings or endings.

This Owld Acquaintance, we'll not forget,
Nor the man who brought us here.
We found much joy and merriment
In the owl box, it is clear.

For Carlos and his wife, we cheer.
For Molly and her clan!
We love our owlet and we pray ,
That we'll do it all again!

Should Owld acquaintance be forgot
And never brought to mind?
Should Owld acquaintance be forgot
In days of Owld Lang Syne.

Do You See What I See?

Sung to the tune of Do You Hear What I Hear?, written by Noël Regney and Gloria Shayne Baker—first recorded by the Harry Simeone Chorale in 1962 and made popular by Bing Crosby in 1963, as well as numerous other recording artists.

Said the Mommy Molly to the little owlets,
"Do you see what I see?
Way down in the field, little owlets,
Do you see what I see?
A rat, a rat, scurry in the night
With a tail as big as a kite,
With a tail as big as a kite."

Said the little owlets to the Daddy McGee,
"Do you hear what we hear?
Squeaking through the night, Daddy McGee,
Do you hear what we hear?
A squeak, a squeak
Down below the trees
With a voice as sweet as can be,
With a voice as sweet as can be."

Said the Daddy McGee to the mighty Molly,
"Do you know what I know?
In your Owl box Home, mighty Molly,
Do you know what I know?
Our owlets, our owlets shrieking oh so nice--
Let us bring them gopher and mice,
Let us bring them some gopher and mice."

Said the Carlos Owl King to the people everywhere,
"Listen to what I say!
Pray for peace, people, everywhere,
Listen to what I say!
The Owls, the owls sleeping in the day
They will bring us goodness and light,
They will bring us goodness and light."

Lyric parody by VSue

Molly, The Speckled Barn Owl

Sung to the tune of Rudolph, the Red-Nosed Reindeer, written by Robert L. May and Johnny Marks, made popular by Gene Autry.

Molly, the speckled barn owl
Had a very wiggly tail.
And if you ever saw it,
You would giggle without fail.

All of the owl box chatters,
Watched her very faithfully.
Never a day without Molly,
The owlets, Glowz or Leggz McGee.

Then one dreary soggy night,
No food was to be found.
McGee said, "Molly, please don't bite,
I'll get you food from town."

Now all the chatters hollered,
"You're the perfect man, McGee!
Molly, the speckled barn owl,
Has surely changed our history!"

Lyric parody by DotRot

Joy To the World!

Sung to the tune of Joy To the World, written by Isaac Watts (based on Psalm 98) and Lowell Mason (based, in part, on excerpts from Handel's Messiah).

Joy to the world! The Owls have come:
Let us receive them now
Let ev'ry heart prepare their home,
And Ashley and Carrie sing,
And Ashley and Carrie sing,
And Ashley and Carrie; Molly and McGee sing.

Molly rules the box with love and grace,
And owls to the people prove
The glories of owlrightness
And wonders of their love,
And wonders of their love,
And wonders, wonders of their love.

Lyric parody by VSue

Up On The Rooftop

Sung to the tune of Up on The House Top, written by Benjamin Hanby and made popular by Gene Autry and numerous other recording artists.

Up on the rooftop, there's ole Mockz -
Singing joyfully on the box.
Look very carefully and you'll see
A spider named Glowz spinning merrily.

Oh Molly! Oh Molly!
We all love your face to see!
There in the owl box—Hork Hork Hork!
Out pops another one, like a cork!

Lyric parody by DotRot

Molly, The Common Barn Owl

Sung to the tune of Rudolph, the Red-Nosed Reindeer, written by Robert L. May and Johnny Marks, made popular by Gene Autry.

Molly the common barn owl had a very great owl box.
And if you ever saw it you would even say "it rockz!"
All of the other barn owls hope to find a home this good,
But it will be a challenge if the Royals keep just one.

Then one warm San Marcos eve Carlos came to say,
"McGee sir with your love so bright
Won't you join Miss Molly tonight?"

Then all the viewers loved them as we watched excitedly.
Molly the common barn owl and her faithful mate McGee!

Lyric parody by minasparrot

Owlet Christmas

Sung to the tune of White Christmas, written by Irving Berlin, used first in the movie Holiday Inn, then in the movie White Christmas and recorded by Bing Crosby.

I'm dreaming of an owlet Christmas
Just like the ones I used to know
Where the owl box glistens,
And owlets listen to hear Molly calls below!

I'm dreaming of an owlet Christmas
With every owlet card I write.
May your days be merry & bright
And may all your owlets be off in flight!

Lyric parody by GentleDoe

Carlos, The Show Man

Sung to the tune of Frosty, the Snowman, written by Walter "Jack" Rollins and Steve Nelson and originally recorded by Gene Autry in 1950.

Carlos the show man
Was a jolly happy soul,
With a patient wife,
A Hawaiian shirt,
And a box up on a pole.

Carlos the show man
Is a fairy tale, they say,
His computer's slow,
But the chatters know
How he bought new gear one day.

There must have been some magic in
That webcam that he found.
For when he placed it in the box
All the raptors came around.

O, Carlos the show man
Was alive as he could be,
And the neighbors say
He could laugh and play
Just the same as you and me.

Thumpetty thump thump,
Thumpety thump thump,
Filming pretty scenes...

Thumpetty thump thump,
Thumpety thump thump,
Building owl trampolines !

Carlos the show man
Had the RV packed one day,
And he said, "Let's sing
And we'll buy some bling
Now before I drive away."

Then Carlos the show man
Had to hurry on his way,
But he waved goodbye
Shouting, "Me, oh, my...
I'll retire again some day."

Thumpetty thump thump,
Thumpety thump thump,
Look at Carlos go.

Thumpetty thump thump,
Thumpety thump thump,
Thanks to The Molly Show.

I Saw Molly Kissing Santa Claus

Sung to the tune of I Saw Mommy Kissing Santa Claus, written by by Tommie Connor and originally recorded by 13 year old Jimmy Boyd in 1952.

I saw Molly kissing Santa Claus
Underneath the mistletoe last night.
She thought I was in bed.
But I watched on infrared;
She figured that I'd had logged off
On the East Coast, eyes of red.

Then, I saw Molly nuzzle Santa Claus.
Ruffled up her down, so snowy white;
Oh, what a laugh it would have been
If McGee had only seen
Molly kissing Santa Claus last night.

Hork! The Herald Owlets Sing

Sung to the tune of Hark! The Herald Angels Sing, written by Charles Wesley and William H. Cummings (adapted from a melody from Felix Mendelssohn).

Hork! An owlet's voice is heard,
Glory to the new-born bird,
In San Marcos, creatures wild,
Rat and raptor reconcil'd.

Joyful all ye chatters rise,
Soon he'll fledge and sail the skies,
Let's all sign a new e-Card...
Eggs have hatched in Carlos' yard !!!

Lyric parodies by Woof Wolf

Rockin' Around The Molly Box

Sung to the tune of Rockin' Around the Christmas Tree, written by Johnny Marks and originally recorded by Brenda Lee in 1958.

Rockin' around the Molly Box at the owlet party hop.
Mouseltoes hung where you can see
Ev'ry owlet tries to stop.
Rockin' around the Molly Box; let the Molly Bop ring
Later we'll have some rodent pie and we'll do some Hooting.

You will get a sentimental feeling when you hear
Owls a screeching "Let's be jolly,
Deck the walls with Glowz glitter webz."
Rockin' around the Molly Box. Have a happy holiday.
Ev'ryone dancing merrily in the new Barn Owl way.

Lyric parody by VSue

We'll Be Watching Molly

Sung to the tune of I'll Be Home for Christmas, written by James "Kim" Gannon and Walter Kent. and originally recorded by Bing Crosby in 1943.

We'll be watching Molly
Perched in box or neighbor's palm tree
The wind gently blows in San Marcos
As McGee brings her nightly treats
In the morning or the evening
Whenever the time allows
We'll join to chat in our owl box
Thanks to the Royals and Ustream!

Lyric parody by Tresbien

Music speaks what cannot be expressed, soothes the mind and gives it rest, heals the heart and makes it whole, flows from heaven to the soul.

Anonymous

"Joy, sorrow, tears, lamentation, laughter — to all these music gives voice, but in such a way that we are transported from the world of unrest to a world of peace, and see reality in a new way, as if we were sitting by a mountain lake and contemplating hills and woods and clouds in the tranquil and fathomless water."

Albert Schweitzer

I think I should have no other mortal wants, if I could always have plenty of music. It seems to infuse strength into my limbs and ideas into my brain. Life seems to go on without effort, when I am filled with music.

George Eliot

I have my own particular sorrows, loves, delights; and you have yours. But sorrow, gladness, yearning, hope, love, belong to all of us, in all times and in all places. Music is the only means whereby we feel these emotions in their universality.

H.A. Overstreet
