It was brief, but as always, fun! I'm too darn tired to even think up a haiku.

I am about to capture a copy of the chat from 7:25pm yesterday until now.

James Hill If you have anything even marginally profound to say, say it now. You're end up at the top the list

Merritt James, what are the honors?

What James, you are a hooff! That's as profound as I get a 1:30am

Lorri You do mean, night, man.

Lorri And with that useful and eloquent observation on my part, I think it's time for me to go bye-bye for tonight. May owl your dreams come true...

Susan_NJ Why & the large screen switched to the outside box? I'm not usually up at this hour. I like to see both inside and outside together.

akikat susan the owlets are in front of the camera at night so you only see fuzz. much better view of the parents bringing food to them and those little gwoy eyes shining out the door.

Lorri I swear I just heard one of the owlets relieve himself against the side of the box - remember when one of them shot right at the camera?

an art and I have 3 orders to get out, I can't believe I'm still here. It's ONLY 3:21 am, today isn't going to be a fun day. Have to make another one of those. Atley hand and of cement. I love you Molly but I've GOT to go. Good night everyone, enjoy Kathryn What a neat they are not as big as the rail one!

Lorri Very cool, Christina. Get some sleep, and good luck tomorrow, you owled woman!

dave the buzzard guy's wife-diana Goodnight from here too

Lorri Goodnight to us, too.

Karen from Mississippi Goodnight owl friends, many times, it's been funny, may I pose some more action, another headless bunny? (yep)

KIM J LOL, that's great! "...epic in the pellet dept..." I would like to see the whole wad!

My favorite comment of the night: (and if few by completely unnoticed at first)

Joan Schultz Tomorrow should be rock in the pellet dept., if you're in to that sort of thing today. 21:53:17

Lorri LOL, that's great! "...epic in the pellet department" should win some sort of descriptive award, because of course one can immediately picture it vividly

Kathryn It's getting windy!

Lorri I thought you were saying good night before, but now I realize you were "catching up" in the basement. Sorry for the premature good bye!

Kathryn No worries! After I saw it all got POP'd I figured I couldn't catch up later. I LOVE my new posting ability!

Betty Just realized I'm matching on chicken/buzz crackers... how appropriate!

Lorri So after working today, going to a very moving memorial service for a friend, coming home to make food for a birthday party of another friend, going to that party and celebrating it, I come to my online night-time hangout and it was very quiet for those first few minutes, so I scroll down and find out that the owlets have more food than they can keep up with. Would that were so for the whole world!

Christina Walker Molly's mood is so good at this time, how sure is Carols that this is their first time?

KIM J Since I'm trying to recover from MDD, I have to go..... Just after the delivery. LOL

Christina Walker O.M.G!! My computer is moving so slow... think it could have anything to do with the 786 pictures I have of Molly

Stacyrom haha/haha

Karen from Mississippi 786?!? I would've never guessed. I do appreciate those who take the time to capture all those great moments.

James Hill Two words for you, Christina - Adobe Lightroom - 48,000+ images" in my catalog and things are still quite zippy

Lorri Oh sure, James

akikat are they OTHER nest cams???? haha

Kate They're busy eating... and so quiet!

Merritt A rarity this time of night!

akikat My heart... more stuff going on at my mom's home today. please say a prayer for everyone's safety.

Lorri sending you and your family white light...

Stacyrom Blessings to you and your dear family...

akikat Thanks all, must have been a false alarm... hubby's putting back in. In my mem thought she heard gawking.

Merritt What a still gonna pray, though. We need that person caught!

akikat my daughter has taken all the precautions you can, changed numbers, email, blocked all but friends from facebook, deleted the boyfriend from her friend list, men are walking her to her car after work.

Dawn R Will be going now, goodnight and have a good day tomorrow everyone.

Christina Walker Thank you, you too, night

Boots Feel another round Computer clear sleep attack Today for the summer

Good Night Owl! Have fun

Merritt Nice, Boots. That's a good one.

Merritt Rita Maria replied to me below and said maybe they are keeping in the box now because the prey is still alive, part of the training process. I hope Carols lets us see inside the box.

Stacyrom me too... I wish... remember that first live mouse, and then the rabbit? Raw nature for sure KIM J Me too! I want to see Max swallow another rabbit!

Kate Very cool, guess the headless bunnies don't do much to stimulate hunting instinct, huh?

James Hill Phantom of the nighttime sky

Merritt James, thanks for the pic! Took me a while to remember you're on PST but I enjoyed reviewing a bit from last night. In addition to the rick morning chat that I missed!

Kathryn I am on PST too, so I am not up as late as others.

Merritt I was being able to post almost real time now. It's been very painful to be locked out of the conversations for so long. I could see the posts on my other screen but not on my post while my other session was locked up. LOL, what a MDD I am

Merritt Yesterday, James lives in EST, but changed his computer to PST to correspond with the real life events!

Dawn R That sounds like a heavy case of MDD

James Hill I just updated the wiki with a new one - Sat 5/1 9:02am PDT - 7:24pm PDT

Christina Walker DQ and IBO are my favorites

Kathryn There were two deliveries within 2 minutes!

Christina Walker I thought so, Thanks

KIM J African web cam's amazing http://www.sportsmansparadiseline.com/live/Wildlife/Animal/Cam/View

Kate Awesome, but the helicopter kinda ruined it for me.

Betty Temporary diversion

Dawn R Wow! There is more going on there right now, than I have ever seen before at the other african web cam sites here. Thanks Lea Jones Tourville Wow!! A total of 10 treats so far. Last night the total was 10. They're on a roll!!

Kate They have so much to eat that they're not even hanging out by the door!

Lea Jones Tourville They're going to be fat and happy little owlets!!! They don't have to hang by door, they're getting furry deliveries!

Kate Major varmint control happening!

Kathryn Holy Cow! They've had a handful LOL

Kate These owlets have some seriously good parents!

Cheryl Greenway Owen Morning Everyone! Just got here in time to see that delivery - only popping in this morning - got to work!! ... oh and Molly just turned up - looked like they didn't realize she was there!

Merritt Again with the inbox delivery! What is up with that, after all this time?

Merritt Followed by yet another one!

Joe Frisco Maybe she's bringing them shopping? Someone mentioned that was one of the next steps for them to learn.

Whool Another one!

Just spent the last hour and a half getting my login/logout to work to my photo show. That is a 34 pound chook salmon I caught last year here in Oregon from the Bear River.

I have a bit of catching up to do. With that, I will leave you with a Haiku:

A busy night Nature has been good to us Our bellies are full Merritt Yay, you did it! Good night, Kathryn. See you tomorrow, for real!

Info, which I finally got! Seeing "his owl" seems my posts take right away instead of freezing me up. I think it was my Yahoo account wanting more goodnite- Idaho home! I'd have a busy day tomorrow.

Melanie from Milwaukee, WI It's down in the basement for a bit... but come back up soon.

Beats Be careful. Lots of moody stuff down there.

Kate It can smell quite foul too.

Melanie from Milwaukee, WI ANNNNN... the sweet sounds of the evening screech!

Can't stay as long as last night though. lol Just for a "hello" while.

Dawn R Here you go, looks like I missed a lot!

Christina Walker Delivery #9 @2:08 AM from me here in Florida. The light and cam's really off tonight, can't tell what she/he has.

Guest What's on your mind...

Guest JL... accidents happen??? This was supposed to be "impossible" for BP. They can't fix it. Sorry to ruin everyone's night but watch the news! They are talking about 200,000 gallons a day and don't know how to stop it! 5,000 FT down in the ocean!

Chris in Olympia, WA Thanks all for updating me. Sounds like I missed a lot. But I needed to be where I was, so that's OK.

Well, just made a huge PDF of the chat going back to 9 am and then found out that James had already done one through 7:24 pm. It did miss down and post it in the morning after James posts his. That's what comes of not having time to read the basement first. Doing extra unnecessary work. I mean, spinning out for tonight now.

Merritt Good night, Chris. I'm glad you had a nice time at the banquet. Of course that is where you should have been. I know your friend appreciated having you there to honor him.

Grite Chris! Great Chris!

Melanie from Milwaukee, WI Good night Chris - I'm just checking in. lol Haven't good-night sleep!

See you tomorrow

Stacyrom, could you believe the cheater, wildbeest, zebra chase we just saw on the Africa cam? With all the excitement with owls, it's really been one amazing night!

Stacyrom amping for sure... we are so lucky... the wonders of the world wide web...

Linda Hendrickson Oh dar, it's already 2:13 here in FL. Nights go so fast here on the Molly cam! C'mon aight Guest Anytime in the gulf and dealing with the oil spill? Just curious, lots of wildlife going to be wiped out the next few days, Molly and crew lucky.

JL Accidents happen and anyone and everybody who can needs to help out, personally I am praying for a hurricane or something BIG to disperse the oil, so recovery can come faster.

KIM J They thought 5,000 barrels a day now estimate 25,000 per day maybe 50 barrels. Big disaster

Pat D Hope to be back soon, going to try to get a bit more sleep if I could will let me.

akikat I hope you feel better. Myorggie? They can be so bothersome! Nice again.

Linda Hendrickson Oh, he changed it to my mouse.

Karen from Mississippi Another camera attack John Cleese is alive!

Tongue's Hawk! Sounds like a tabloid cover!

Merritt I've been looking all over on so many other wildlife webcams... I feel like I've deserted you...

dave the buzzard guy's wife-diana You lurk, I lurk, we probably all lurk

KIM J Remember all that lurk... of Mr. D.

KIM J Thanks, I remember those good ol' days. I've had to attend MOD support meetings! My assignments were to clean the rig, the car and the house and donate 200,000 gallons a day and don't know how to stop it! 5,000 FT down in the ocean!

Merritt Our dear Chris in WA wants to know what she has missed. Could everyone please post their favorite event in their reply to this?

Linda Hendrickson Chris missed the rat chase.

dave the buzzard guy's wife-diana Ms. Molly was a tease!

Betty But where to start???

Merritt Molly brought a treat to the box, then took to the platform, ate some of it, then took it back and gave it to the owlets.

James Hill Chris missed the argument: http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=1oK81r9G7c

Merritt And James Cleese & I did lol

Karen from Mississippi I need to go to sleep. I thought that said James Cleese.

James Hill James (don't call me, I'm) Cleese

James Hill It ain't easy being this cheery.

Stacyrom McGee and Molly both have been shoving food into the box instead of just handing it off tonight.

Wendy Lattimer Molly came on the Camera. After she left one of the Owlets (looked like Max) almost came out of the box.

Chris in Olympia, WA I got here for the attack of the camera, but missed the rest. I would have liked to see the rat chase, and Max teetering on the edge. I wonder if Carols

JL ow baby has been and it's about whole

Merritt Oh yeah! Carols switched to the inside and we saw an owl down half a rabbit!! Legs and all (which I know has been seen before in the daytime but still is quite thrilling)

akikat also one parent tried to get inside the box and the rowdy kids made it impossible

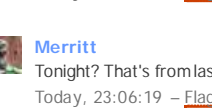

Chris in Olympia, WA Thanks, Everyone! I know I should read the basement and I will after I copy it, but I can't stay long because my husband has to do computer stuff and needs to go to get a Set & Go for the wedding.

Sports is the watching a nature show on television and you are watching it with someone. When my husband I watch movies or nature stuff or even sports, we always make comments about what is going on. Posted my reply in wrong post. I said we should not get onto newcomers about asking the same question we have answered numerous times (unless we recognize the person). Just getting laid the person to the page with the information on MM. I know it can be frustrating, however, we have to give the person credit for even asking. Only good can come from this experience.
