Time for the daily summary of the night's events, to be collected by our friend Latrippi and included in the Molly wiki created by some wonderful volunteers from his chat room. If you would like to add your favorite moment from the night to this summary, please feel free to reply below. The summary is posted at <http://mollyowl.pbworks.com/Timeline>. To catch up on past events, be sure to check this out!
Max and Pattison stepped out of the box as dusk darkened into night, and soon thereafter Austin launched himself out in his characteristic style. Wesley stayed inside all night but could be seen flapping his wings and hopping in preparation for his exit soon. The chat roomlast night witnessed a number of food deliveries handed off to owlets outside the box, causing some to realize the food count might have been low in the past week because some food deliveries were happening off camera!

Good morning from Woodstock Canada. We are glad to see that all are in. Hubby is laughing himself silly at the door antics of an owl in response to the singing of the purple house finch. He himself has been afflicted by its (finch)morning exuberance. He believes the owls have an advantage perhaps they can eat it. ha ha. The weather here will be over 100 with the humidex and sunny. Hope that storm down in San marcos clears off soon.

Anyway we're off out to Salsburg's then got to help my youngest son pack for a week long school trip. I too will be watching Britains got Talent - but I'll be watching the owls at the same time! Diffcult to say - the two older ones have disappeared for long periods of time - and I'm sure when I logged on this morning that I saw one of the owlets fly into the box with a mouse in his beak, literally seconds before Moly or McGee turned up with another mouse. Whether he caught it himself or it was given to him I guess we'll never know for sure! would be great if they had little 'head cams' so we could see what they were up to!

A quick aside. Whether I'm on my computer or my husband's laptop, after I've been on here a while, it starts locking and taking ages to action anything. Wondered whether it may be the site - but I expect it's just our old computers.

That happens to me a lot aswell - I'm not at all technically minded but I don't know if it's something to do with it being live streaming and gradually clogs up the memory or something!! I sometimes have to restart my browser to clear it - I've even had to restart the laptop to really sort it out!

Yes, Cheryl's probably correct. The streaming chat and video dog up the memory and you need to 1) refresh the page, 2) quit the browser and start it again, 3) reboot the whole computer, in order of things to try.

James, I shrunk the kids! LOL, I don't know what made me say that. Anyways, I compressed three PDFs, sorry it took so long but I kept thinking Wesley was going to come out.

I haven't seen the corrupt one show up either. Also, I see some other "huge" files out there but I had trouble matching the names and dates on those ones. If anyone could delete the extra files with the "huge" name I can tell which ones still need to be compressed. That can be done tomorrow or later, though.

 That had to have been Austin. You are right the shrieking is too loud, and that was Austin's trademark "launch."

Actually, it's all the staying up late watching the owls that has turned my sleep schedule topsy turvy. I'm not used to going to sleep now until 4/5am...and then I sleep much too long into the day. Currently unemployed...so that's allowing me to sleep in. But I'd much rather get a decent sleep and get back to a more "normal" schedule...bl. I've always been kind of a night owl though...staying up at least until 11pm or 12pm even when working. Not much of a morning person...grouchy. 😊😊😊 But, yep...still WIDE awake right now, and would love to light some candles and zone out to a DVD. I can't sleep until I know he's safe and home. Many drunk drivers out there....

Kathryn, if you want to shrink this PDF, I will take you up on that offer and go to bed. There are probably still some other old ones on the wiki that James might need shrunk as well. When I did it, I called them "smaller" instead of "opt" because I didn't ask how James wanted it done so those with "smaller" are ok. But the ones that say "Huge" still could be shrunk I think. Thanks!!! 😊
