Zesty- I've wanted Web Inspector Adam to draw me a picture of an owl's insides showing how they fit a whole rabbit in there. 😊 I'm still waiting for it.

This one was written after Carlos' close encounter with an owl who landed near him on the fence. (I promise, for those that are sick of it, this is the last time tonight I post this.)

Carlos Royalsits,
Watching owlets fly above.
Penskre, in the dark.

An owl approaches:
On silent wings it lands near.
"Hello Man", says Owl.

"We proudly honor
The one who shared our story,
Your world watched us grow."

"Welcome to OUR world!
Through your dreams, join us in flight;
We are one with you."

We have been keeping an archive of our chat from this web site for several weeks now, and all of that is available as PDFs from the wiki. Just in case you ever want to look back at a specific day/event and see what the conversation was like over here. Of course there are many other gems tucked away on all the other pages as well.

I'm really looking forward to the first edition of the book. Thanks, again.

Going off to bed myself now. I almost fell asleep at the band concert. 😊 Not the kids' fault. It was dark warm room and a comfortable seat and I am so sleep deprived.

So before I go, tell folks to Sign the Card! 😊 <http://www.grouprcard.com/c/kn8GB0vXnR/>

(with serious apologies to Allen Ginsberg!) (definitely NOT Haiku)

I saw the best minds on the internet obsessed by owlets, intrigued long into the night, dragging themselves through dark hallways to their computers at dawn, looking for an early fix: dedicated owleters longing for one more flight of McGe, that feathery dynamo in the machinery of night.

Skeleton Treasures flung into the corner - no one's safe in the animal soup of the owbox.

Owly, Owly, Owly! Every owl's an angel!

Anticipation and First Exits of the Evening.
Clockwise, starting from top left. Last image is in the center.
Don't know for sure, but I think the dark frame is due to the camera self-adjusting exposure right after Carbs flashed.
I have two frames which came out that way. A bit odd, but I like odd.
