

Hi Robert! I hope all is well with you and all your crowd!! Molly's brood have all fledged, and are happy and free now. The cameras were turned off Monday night. We think that Molly and McGee have 'bonded' again, and hope there is a second part to this story!! We are all very sad not to see the 4 owlets everyday, but are happy they are healthy and free now!! I am posting your video 'Against the Odds' in the chat room to keep us looking at owls!! Your video brings tears to many of our eyes now. Your eight are so like the 4 we watched grow up before our eyes! Wanted to thank you again for such a wonderful and beautiful piece of work!!

Take care,

Always, Becky DeSalvo =^..^=

PS... To see more pictures of the owls, go to www.mollysbox.wordpress.com There are some great pictures I think you will love!!

Hello Becky,

Thank you for your message and photos. You must all feel a mixture of relief and sadness at the owls fledging. I remember with the eight, then there were six and finally two stayed around the barn for a couple of days before going out into the world. Having spent so much time with them it was sad to see them finally all gone but relief that they had all made it and a hope that they too would breed successfully.

Thank you once again for helping to bring "A.T.O" to a wider audience.

Best wishes and regards.

Robert.
